THE VIRGINIA OXONIAN DINNER COMMITTEE

STAT

March 20, 1980

Dear Virginia Oxonian:

The third annual Virginia Oxonian dinner has been scheduled for Friday, April 25, in Richmond. We invite all those who have attended Oxford and who now live in Virginia. We trust we have planned an evening that will be interesting, entertaining, and convivial, and we hope you will be free to join us.

We have reserved the Executive Dining Suite of F & M National Bank, atop (24th floor) the F & M Center, located at F & M Plaza, off 12th Street between Main and Cary. The bar will open at 6:45 p.m., and we plan to have dinner served at 8 p.m. After dinner you may wish to visit one of the nightspots in Richmond's historic Shockoe Slip area, adjacent to the F & M Center.

As usual, dress is black tie or college blazer. The cost of the dinner (including cocktails, wine, tax and tip) will be $22.50 per person. Although this represents an increase over last year's fare, that did not include cocktails; nor does the slightly higher price of the Oxford-Cambridge dinner that will take place in Washington on April 2.

Parking spaces will be available in the F & M garage. You should enter left off Cary Street, just before 12th. We advise seeking space on the main deck. After parking, take an elevator to the Plaza and then walk to the F & M building itself and proceed to the 24th floor. A security guard will probably be on duty as you enter the building, but it should not be necessary to sign in.

As usual, we expect the tone of the evening to be social. Unlike the traditional boat race dinners, this dinner will continue to include spouses, dates, and other guests. Cantabs will continue to be excluded generally; however, we do expect token representation from the other university.

The usual toasts will be followed by various after dinner remarks. Featured remarks will be made by Washington lawyer R. James Woolsey, Jr. (St. John's '63), who has recently returned to private practice after serving as Undersecretary of the Navy. Before that, Jim served as counsel to the Senate Armed Services Committee. With crises exploding almost daily around the world, we are sure you will wish to hear Jim's timely remarks concerning our nation's defense.

In order to make reservations, please return the enclosed form no later than April 10. No tickets will be distributed; you will be recognized at the door.

Even if you are unable to attend, we urge you to return the enclosed form with a view toward confirming or correcting your address and suggesting possible additions to our mailing list. We also encourage you to make a modest donation to defray the cost of Committee overhead.

Perhaps you have an Oxford friend who has not heard from us directly to whom you might forward a copy of this letter. In any event, if you have any questions or changes in plans, feel free to contact either of us by phone.

Yours faithfully,

Daniel A. Carrell
(Merton '63)

and

J. Kennerly Davis, Jr.
(Pembroke '68)

I recognize that the inflationary spiral is making it difficult to cover Committee overhead expenses through payments for the dinner. To contribute toward postage, phone tolls, subsidizing dinners for special guests, and related costs, I enclose my contribution of $_____. [The Committee would welcome contributions of a few dollars each.]
